4. Material Related Party Transaction

A transaction with a related party shall be considered material if the transaction(s) to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, exceeds ten percent of the annual consolidated turnover of the company as per the last audited financial statements of the company.

[(1A) Notwithstanding the above, [with effect from July 01, 2019] a transaction involving payments made to a related party with respect to brand usage or royalty shall be considered material if the transaction(s) to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, exceed five percent of the annual consolidated turnover of the listed entity as per the last audited financial statements of the listed entity.]

5. Manner of dealing with Related Party Transactions

i) Identification of Related Party Transactions:

Each Director and Key Managerial Personnel is required to give notice of disclosure of interest under section 184 and 189 of the Companies Act 2013 alongwith list of relatives to the company. The Company shall ensure that no transaction is entered into with any entity/ individual disclosed by the Director/ KMP without requisite approvals.

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS POLICY: PLAZA WIRES LIMITED

The Board/ Audit Committee will determine whether the transaction requires compliance with this policy or not.

ii) Procedure for Approval of Related Party Transactions:

❖ Approval of Audit Committee:

All Related Party Transactions shall require prior approval of the Audit Committee. However the Audit Committee may grant omnibus approval for Related Party Transactions proposed to be entered into by the company subject to the following conditions:

- The Audit Committee shall lay down the criteria for granting the omnibus approval in line with Related Party Transactions Policy of the company and such approval shall be applicable in respect of transactions which are repetitive in nature;
- The Audit Committee shall satisfy itself the need for such omnibus approval and that such approval is in the interest of the Company;
- Such omnibus approval shall specify (i) the name/s of the related party, nature of transaction, period of transaction, maximum amount of transaction that can be entered into, (ii) the indicative base price/current contracted price and the formula for variation in the price if any and (iii) such other conditions as the Audit Committee may deem fit;

Provided that where the need for Related Party Transaction cannot be foreseen and aforesaid details are not available, Audit Committee may grant omnibus approval for such transactions subject to their value not exceeding Rs.1 crore per transaction.

- The Audit Committee shall review, at least on a quarterly basis, the details of related party transactions entered into by the company pursuant to each of the omnibus approval given;
- Such omnibus approval shall be valid for one year and shall require fresh approvals after the expiry of one year.

❖ Approval of Board of Directors:

As per the provisions of Section 188 of the Act, all kinds of transactions specified under the said Section and which are not in the ordinary course of business or not at arm's length basis, shall require the approval of Board of directors.

In addition to the above, the following kinds of transactions with related parties shall also be placed before the Board for its approval:

- Transactions which may be in the ordinary course of business and at arm's length basis, but which are as per the policy determined by the Board from time to time (i.e. value threshold and/or other parameters) require Board's approval in addition to Audit Committee approval;
- Transactions in respect of which the Audit Committee is unable to determine whether or not they are in the ordinary course of business and/or at arm's length basis and decides to refer the same to the Board for its approval;
- Transactions which are in the ordinary course of business and at arm's length basis, but which in Audit Committee's view requires Board's approval.
- Transactions meeting the materiality thresholds as laid down above in the Policy, which are intended to be placed before the shareholders for their approval.

❖ Approval of Shareholders:

All the material related party transactions as prescribed under Regulation 23 of LODR Regulations shall be approved by the Shareholders through an ordinary resolution.

For this purpose, all entities falling under the definition of related parties shall abstain from voting irrespective of whether the entity is a party to the particular transaction or not.

However, for the purpose of Regulation 23 of LODR Regulations, transactions entered into between a holding company and its wholly owned subsidiary whose accounts are consolidated with such holding company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval, does not require shareholder approval.

In addition to the above, all kinds of transactions specified under Section 188 of the Act which (a) are not in the ordinary course of business or not at arm's length basis; and (b) exceed the thresholds laid down in Companies (Meetings of Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014, as may be amended from time to time, shall be placed before the shareholders for their approval.

iii) Ratification by the Board and/or Shareholders of the Company

Where any contract or arrangement is entered into by a director or any other employee without obtaining the consent of the Board or shareholders pursuant to Section 188(1) of the Act and if is not ratified by the Board and/or shareholders within 3 months from the date of contract or arrangement, such contract or arrangement shall be voidable at the option of the Board. If such contract or arrangement is with related party to director or is authorized by any director, the directors concerned shall indemnify the Company against any loss incurred.

iv) Existing Contracts, if any:

The Policy shall operate prospectively and all the Contracts entered into by company, after making necessary compliances under the Companies Act, 1956, which already came into effect before the commencement of the Companies Act, 2013, i.e. April 1, 2014, will not require fresh approval till the expiry of the original term of such contracts. However, any agreement for material transactions which has been already approved and continued to be operational beyond March, 2015, will require fresh approval of shareholders.

v) Effect on Related Party Transaction not approved under this policy:

In the event the Company becomes aware of a RPT that has not been approved under this policy prior to its consummation, the matter shall be reviewed by the Audit Committee and the Audit Committee shall consider all relevant facts and circumstances regarding the RPT, evaluate all options available to the Company, including ratification, revision or termination of the RPT.

In any case, where the Audit Committee determines not to ratify a RPT that has been commenced without its approval, the Audit Committee, may direct additional actions as appropriate, including but not limited to, immediate discontinuation or rescission of the RPT, or modification of the RPT to make it acceptable for ratification. With respect to review of an RPT, the Audit Committee has authority to modify or waive any procedural requirements of this Policy.

6. Interpretation :

In any circumstance where the terms of this policy differ from any existing or newly enacted law, rule, regulation or standard governing the Company, the law, rule, regulation or standard will take precedence over this policy and procedures till such time as this policy will change to conform to the law(s), rule(s), regulation(s) or standard(s).

7. Disclosures:

- The details of RPTs, which are not in the Ordinary Course of Business and/ or not at Arm's Length, shall be disclosed in the Boards' Report along with a justification for entering into such transactions.
- Details of all material related party transactions shall be disclosed quarterly alongwith the compliance report on Corporate Governance.
- The Related Party Transactions Policy shall be disclosed on the website of the Company and a web link thereto shall be provided in the Annual Report too.

8. Miscellaneous:

The right to interpret/ amend/ modify this Policy vests in the Board of Directors of the Company as may be recommended by the Audit Committee. This Policy will be communicated to all the Directors, KMPs, operational employees and other concerned persons of the Company.

9. Amendment
